Red Cross blood drive Nov. 29

The Granville Lions Club will host a community blood drive with the American Red Cross on Monday, Nov. 29, from noon to 6 p.m. at the American Legion Hall, located at 10 Columbus St. in Granville.

According to the Red Cross, the blood supply in the United States is very low at this time. It is safe to donate blood, and all eligible individuals – including those who have received a Covid-19 vaccine – are encouraged to donate. Donors with all blood types are needed, especially those with types O negative, A negative and B negative.

For more information or to make an appointment to donate, call 800-REDCROSS or sign up online at redcrossblood.org with sponsor code GRANVILLELIONS. Appointments are required.

“The Granville Lions Club is committed to strengthening our community and helping meet hospital and patient needs through blood donations,” said Roger Ellis, president of the Granville Lions Club. “This blood drive is our way of giving our friends and neighbors an opportunity to help save lives.”

The Granville Lions Club is part of Lions Clubs International, a 100-year-old service organization of 1.4 million members in more than 200 countries around the world.

Basket raffle to benefit Keri Jenkins

A basket raffle to benefit Keri Jenkins will take place at the Granville American Legion Post 323 at 10 Columbus St. in Granville on Saturday, Nov. 20, from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m.

Jenkins, an RN at Granville Center, has been fighting breast cancer. Because she goes above and beyond for her residents and the facility, it's time to go above and beyond for her.

For more information, or to donate a basket, call Trista Welch at 518-334-5205 or Ashley Martin at 518-321-5155.

Backpacks for Hunger coin drop Saturday

The Granville PTO will host a coin drop to benefit the Backpacks for Hunger program on Saturday, Nov. 20, from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. at three locations in Granville: Church Street, Quaker Street and Main Street.

About 60% of students enrolled in Granville Central School District are living below the poverty level. This leaves children at risk for hunger.

While school programs offer free meals during school, these children often don't have access to healthy – if any – food over weekends or on school breaks.

This is where the Backpacks for Hunger program steps in and sends backpacks filled with food home on weekends and during vacation time to children in need.

The Granville PTO asks the community to be generous and help sustain this very important program for kids.
