Granville Center staff enjoy 12 days of Christmas

To keep spirits bright during the holidays, leadership at Granville Center for Rehabilitation and Nursing on Madison Street held a holiday gift raffle during which one lucky person was chosen every day during the 12 days leading up to Christmas. Employees from clinical to the business office and housekeeping put their names into a wheel. The raffle was fun for all.

"It's the holidays, and I love my staff," said Cindy McClarren, administrator of the 122-bed Granville Center. "My staff has worked hard over the past two years, and they are extremely appreciated."
