Slate Valley Center welcomes Truthville Baptist Church

On Sundays during the pandemic, residents who wanted to attend Truthville Baptist Church in North Granville could do so virtually via YouTube livestream.

On Sunday, Jan. 30, for the second time in person in recent weeks, Truthville Baptist Church returned to Slate Valley Center on State Route 40 in Granville.

Prior to Covid, clergy from the church came to Slate Valley Center regularly, and then the pandemic fully crippled these in-person services.

"The residents, as well as the staff, are so happy to welcome back the folks from Truthville Baptist Church," said recreation director Andrea Kelley. "Residents attended the services via livestream for so many months due to the pandemic, and now they are back to pray with us live in person. It's such a great feeling."

Following the service, residents enjoyed various word games on the new whiteboard that was purchased by the facility last week.

Truthville Baptist Church deacon Don McClure with organist Dan Nelson held services for Slate Valley Center residents on Jan. 30.
